Ah! Welcome to dongbanger.com! I notice Changmin is becoming more and more popular too. He's starting to speak up more and show off his funny side more too. :-)

What's your favorite appearance of Changmin's?

What started me to notice Changmin was when he grew his hair long and started working out so he had really defined muscles. Before that I always thought he looked like a 19 year old kid. (I'm older than they are :P)

But then I seriously started to see him as a grown man back during their last tour in Japan (or I think it was their last tour when he had long black hair). :blush:

hello! thank you for the welcome. ^^

I like his appearance during the rising sun and O jung.ban.hap.
and I agree his long hair is what drew me in. =P
